'Issue GOs for poll promises'

KTR slams Cong govt for delaying 6 guarantees

STATE BUREAU HYDERABAD

BRS working president KT Rama Rao on Thursday demanded that the Congress government issue official orders for the implementation of all 13 promises under its six guarantees before the Lok Sabha poll code is enforced.

In an informal interaction with the media at Telangana Bhavan here on Thursday, Rama Rao slammed the blame game by Congress leaders against the BRS regime, aimed at diverting attention from the six guarantees and the delay in their implementation beyond the promised 100 days. If the State government is sincere about the guarantees, it should issue orders before the model code of conduct comes into force, he said.

Earlier, the BRS working president criticised the State government's decisions, such as transferring the management of Krishna river projects to the Centre, which was detrimental to the State's interests.

The management of the Srisailam and Nagarjuna Sagar projects was handed over to the Krishna River Management Board (KRMB) without consulting opposition parties and stakeholders, he said, demanding a discussion on the issue in the Assembly and

Canada accuses India of poll meddling

OTTAWA

Months after Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau accused India of having a role in the killing of pro-Khalistan leader Hardeep Singh Nijjar, a designated terrorist in New Delhi, Ottawa has now announced to investigate alleged meddling by India in the country's Federal elections in 2019 and 2021.

The Foreign Interference Commission, which was set up last year by the Trudeau government to investigate interference by foreign governments in the last two federal elections in Canada, said it will also investigate India's alleged interference in the elections.

The Commission has asked the Canadian government to give it all the information and documents related to the accusation.

Earlier, the main target of the Commission's work was alleged interference by China and Russia. IANS

Nitish may dump I.N.D.I.A for BJP

Signs of deepening fissures between Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar and his I.N.D.I.A bloc allies have given rise to the possibility of his return to the BJP fold amid hectic efforts within the opposition camp to stall any such development.

On a day RJD president Lalu Prasad's daughter Rohini Acharya took a swipe at Kumar for "changing his ideology as the wind changes its direction" in posts on X following the JD(U) president's swipe at parties promoting family members in politics, a BJP leader well-versed with the State's politics said the party will be guided by its future political imperatives, and not past bitterness. He, however, noted that any call has to be taken by the party's top brass.

The BJP has been showing signs of warming up to Kumar, who has swapped his alliance preference between the saffron party and RJD-Congress-Left camp frequently while remaining in power, with its leaders toning down their criticism of him of late and even praising him at times.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah himself sounded more open to such a possibility in a recent interview. Asked about the likelihood of the Janata Dal (U) president's return to the BJP-led alliance, Shah said the party will consider if such a proposal is ever made. Earlier, Shah had asserted that the doors had been closed for Kumar's return to the ruling (SEE PAGE 2)
