Few words from my heart...

Life is the best teacher. That way, I feel blessed to have gone through severe financial hardships early in life. Granting me the liberty of making this request to you - not as a jeweller, but as a past struggler. Please give jewellery purchase its due time and compare prices. Yes, it is an ornament. But it serves purposes that are far more than being merely ornamental. It is a product of your hard work. Your sweat and stress go into buying gold. Some designs are sold with different price tags in different showrooms. Ask why ? It's your money after all. Unless you compare the price between jewellery showrooms, you can't tell whose price is genuine. We are the only brand that allows you to take the estimate slip and mobile photo of any design from our showrooms to compare prices, like for like. Use this opportunity and save money in thousands and even lakhs ! With your blessings, I am happy to announce the opening of Lalithaa Jewellery's 60th showroom at Khammam today. I heartily welcome you to our new showroom !
